This information helps Billboard track the top songs in the country. To track sales and streaming, the Hot 200 Albums Chart schedule is delayed by a few days to encompass a full week of sales. The mean decline in September has been 1.2 percent. Over the past 100 years, there have only been four months when the Dow Jones Industrials have fallen on average. In recent years, these panic attacks could also be something of a self-fulfilling prophecy. And while profits are improving, the market seems priced for perfection. Maybe it's the movement of the sun away from the Northern Hemisphere. For a while, it also traded above its 90-day moving average. If the force of history is not enough for you, try these on for size: In July $50 billion was pulled out of equity funds -- $20 billion more than the previous record. This is six times greater than the next biggest average drop of 0.2 percent, which took place in the month of May. October is no cakewalk, either. Sorry! Something went wrong Is your network connection unstable or browser outdated? This includes venues, mass merchants, retail chains, independent stores and digital downloads. You can also view the top played songs on the radio, top streaming songs, top digital song sales and top hits of the year.Hot 200 Albums ChartThe Hot 200 Albums Chart tracks the top-selling albums of the week. That's nearly a third more than the runner up. Your guess is as good as mine. For an artist to make the Top 40, he or she needs to have high radio plays. More realistically, it could simply be a realization that companies are not going to hit their earnings targets for the year. Nielsen tracks radio stations all over the country and measures toward the songs being played. So as we head into September, hope springs eternal. Often, the artist with the top-selling album is different from the artist with the top-selling single on the Billboard Hot 100. Streaming music: The number of plays on online radio stations like Pandora, Spotify, Apple Music, Yahoo Music and AOL Music are counted toward the total number of streams. Radio is still the most popular way to consume music. October's decline has averaged 0.1 percent - the same as in February. There are a number of factors that determine whether a song makes the top 40 list. Billboard Hot 100/The Billboard Hot 100 is published weekly by Billboard magazine. This is because it takes time to collect all the data needed to rank the songs. In mid-September, the chart is based on data from the week ending August 26. By late September's plunge. The Hot 100 Albums have last released about Friday which is also the global release date for most new albums. Price/earnings ratios for the Standard & Poors 500 are still more than twice their long run average. As the autumn weather makes losses from gains, traders may not have time for the waiting game. It was in the merry month of May that the Dow Jones Industrial Average last stood above 10000. One of them was October (10.7 percent), another December (9.5 percent). Playing a music video on YouTube also counts as a song play. The Dow fell almost 31 percent in September 1931. You can watch the music video and listen to almost every song directly on the Billboard website. In addition to the Hot 100, Billboard also tracks the Billboard 200 and the Artists 100. They include: Sales: Nielsen tracks all of the physical and digital record sales from 19 different countries including the United States and Canada. Because some of the most spectacular market declines have occurred around this time of the year, traders tend to get nervous as August draws to a close. Music consumption is up, but music sales are down.RadioThe biggest AM/FM radio in the world is iHeartRadio. September and October are two of them. As for rebounds, September's biggest gain was 14 percent, which occurred in 1917. Here we are, three months later, the market has again rebounded. For instance, if an album charts on January 27, its total number of listens will be from the January 12-January 18 tracking week.Sales and StreamingWhile album sales are dropping in recent years, the use of streaming services is rising. Why the falloff in the fall? Keep up with the latest daily buzz with the BuzzFeed Daily newsletter! Pick all the languages you want to listen to. You must select a language A rite of passage for musicians is having a song on the top 40 hits radio chart. Radio: Once a song becomes popular enough to be picked up by radio stations, it can gain a lot of traction and earn a spot on the Billboard Hot 100. That's no big deal, since there were only four other months with smaller maximum increases. It's a list of the most popular 100 songs in the U.S. Billboard also tracks whether a song is higher or lower on the charts each week, its peak position and its total weeks on the chart. Besides 1929 and 1987, the market also took a header in late summer or early fall of 1953, 1957, 1966, 1967, 1971, 1973, 1974, 1978, 1997 and 1998. That knocks a major part out from under experts.
