NOT REALLY FIVE STAR By Dorothy McAvoy (Pcmac user) THIS EXCEPTIONALLY FUN, INTERESTING AND COMPLETELY ADDICTIVE GAME IS REALLY A 10 STAR GAME !!!! Of all the computer games WORD CHUMS is the most fun and by far the most interesting. I tell my friends it is scrabble with a BIG TWIST and when they downloaded the free app and started to play, they immediately become addicted, as I am. I find myself even taking my iPad in the bathroom in the middle of the night to play!!!! NOW THAT IS ADDICTED!!!!! I have played Scrabble and Words With Friends and they were fun but WORD CHUMS is by far not only superior to them but also THE BEST GAME ON THE COMPUTER. When you get set up, you MUST take a few minutes to read the rules because if you just start playing, thinking it is just scrabble, you are missing out how to really play the game and you will immediately LOVE IT. I guarantee it!! Fun game, and more I have been playing Word Chums for quite a while. I actually even spend the money and bought the pro version to get rid of the ads. I enjoy it so much! I like how the letters turn green when it is a word. You can play with Random people or friends you know. I have some random people I have been playing now for over a year and have chatted a little with them. Usually just find out what state they're from and wish them merry Christmas, stuff like that. The game is a lot of fun and I have my sister playing me on a regular basis. That's really nice because I don't get to see her very often. It is a way we can keep in touch and do something together. It doesn't take that long to play and it makes you think. Good quick diversion from life's stress. It's a great game! I'm addicted By Bell Isimo (Pcmac user) My brother got me started with Word Chums several months ago and there isn't a day gone by where I haven't picked it up. I have played other word but ended up purging them from my iPad. They just can't compare to the well-thought-outfullness of this one. When coins go on sale here, they are very reasonable, unlike other games and last a while. Hints are presented way better also. The only other feature I would like to see is, that instead of wholesale bombing of unwanted letters, please give us the option of retaining those we want. Otherwise, this game is very user-friendly and close to perfection. Buy the paid version and you'll never be bothered again by ads. Very much worth the price all the way around. by the real KNIFE on 2021/06/27 02:23 Great game. Well designed. Fun sounds. Colorful by Kelleeocean on 2021/06/27 00:42 I absolutely love the game and meeting really special friends ,,,,, it's relaxing and fun:)  $\bigcirc \square$  !!!!!!  $\checkmark$  it's the best of the best  $\bigcirc \square$  am so happy I remembered my password , I'll be buying hints and bombs all the time !!!!!! © love this game .... I would love to have more of those \$9.99. Specials again on the section of those \$9.99. It is an addictive game for sure! by mrfive06 on 2021/06/15 19:25 Ye by Irishscribe on 2021/06/15 00:50 I'm amazed at the intelligence, that Chums can assess the board, letters held by player, and suggest best place to score high, and do it fast; sometimes I beat the hint, sometimes I ignore hint because it might leave a 10 pt. letter vulnerable... by Cupafun on 2021/06/14 16:54 One sure way to keep up with friends and pass the time while giving your brain a little exercise is to play Word Chums. by Sheryl Bell on 2021/06/14 13:41 Be warned, this game is very addictive. I like this so much better than words with friends!! If you like word games, this is a must have. by PTNapa on 2021/06/14 03:25 Great way to spend some free time...exercise for the brain in whatever difficulty level you want. by Punky Z on 2021/06/13 02:09 I love this game.....playing with family, old friends and new friends..ditto by judybugg753 on 2021/06/12 20:36 I love this game. Several times used words that I know we're words, (in the scrabble dictionary) and they would not work! And there is no link to report it! by GRanne6 on 2021/06/09 01:18 NO annoying commercials or advertisements make this BEST Game around! And always can find someone or computer to play! by lilbetz on 2021/06/07 20:09 I love the game and I only want to play with the computer not the world. Hard to stop great twists to an old favorite:) by TreBaCar on 2021/06/07 06:20 Word Chums is by far my favorite word game!!! I love all the little extras. by Smitti1966 on 2021/06/07 03:30 I have been playing this game for a very long time. I always had a lot of games going, but now not quite that many. Other games come and go, but my friends and family all play Chums!! by stteri on 2021/05/24 23:30 But I do think the word ade should be accepted, it is in crossword puzzles by beartap24 on 2021/05/24 14:28 There has been a problem for a few years now that the leader board does not update over the weekend. We have two iPads and two iPhones, and this occurs EVERY week. We have to delete the game, re-install, log in all over again, redo our settings, check on an email verification, and IF we are lucky it works. My wife has been getting "Communication error" which requires deleting all over again. Today, 24 May, 2021, I now have the same problem with repeated communication error! On top of that the leader board showed all my players as NEW! Previous reports to support is non-existent! by nonnie55555 on 2021/05/24 13:53 Once in a while will freeze but not as often as many other games. I have been playing with the same random player for 5 years now. I am in US and he is in UK so twice a day we respond - morning and night. As well as other reviewers, I have a growing list of common words not usable in this game. by PUMKINHOTCHOCO7 on 2021/05/17 16:12 Love this game! by LinLouRi on 2021/05/17 00:34 I love this game app. I must warn that it is very addicting. by Kimathy007 on 2021/05/14 20:36 LOve it love it, Agree Love it. Always the first site I go on in the mornings and throughout the day to see if someonereplayed. Keep up the great game. Love it, lo 2021/05/13 17:50 I've been playing Word Chum for quite a while. I love the challenge, the ability to dress my chums are great. I give gifts to friends as My worthy opponents and have great fun. It's a good game of planning, strategy, some luck, and word development. I wish small less costly gifts could be purchased separately like a flower, balloon, etc. your gift packages are just too expensive for a gift. by Melissa Fladhammer on 2021/05/13 02:48 I have so much fun with this game! Addicting! by geauxtara on 2021/05/12 20:25 Truly enjoy this word game! by Captjlh on 2021/05/12 02:53 Quit all other words I use the paid version so no ads, ever. I've been playing some of the opponents since I first started playing and the competition is pretty fierce. There's no prompts to play what I want, when I want. I wish more apps were like this. by LILI8482 on 2021/05/08 18:24 I love Word Chum. The best game by far. You learn to your word, it changes color to verify that you made a word and gives the score. You get to know as you go. I like being able to play a back and forth game with the chumbots when I feel like it The costumes are an amusing extra by ThankYouMuch on 2021/05/07 01:09 I like the hints and bombs. I also like to change outfits and chums. by Jolly8D on 2021/05/07 00:49 There are so many great things about this game vs others. Love the instant word check, hints and group play. The the cute little chums are an extra bonus. by 5 Cathy on 2021/05/06 19:21 Best crossword puzzle. Colors are very bright and a lot more to it then just words. Highly recommend by MT Deb on 2021/05/06 14:15 It's great clever and fun twist to the old board game I use to play will continue to be one of my favorites for many years to come. So much fun. Thanks !! by Emymasi on 2021/05/05 04:13 I love those little cartoon fellas and all their different expressions. I have just begun playing word chums and already I am addicted. Super enjoyable! Addicting! Brain exercise! Get to play internationally! Word Chums is my buddy. Keeps me company anytime. The new quick game is most enjoyable. I can play so many in an hour! In between painting, reading a book, cooking, marketing, cleaning, socializing, I turn in to Word Chums for hours! I love love this game! Greatest game ever! I cannot survive the lockdown without my Word Chums! by Yoliec on 2021/05/04 22:27 Fun to play with friends and frenamies! by Mindy1208 on 2021/05/04 12:19 Best game ever!! by Yamhd on 2017/09/20 20:29 Had to write a review about this one, been meaning to do it and then I hit the wrong button, the no thanks one. This is the best word game and I have played a few! It is soooooooooooo much fun, the chums are so cute, you want to make a good word, because the chums look so sad and yes sometimes mad when you don't! They just put a smile on your face and at the same time you are using those little grey cells, it is great! And the makers of this did an outstanding job the way everything works so smoothly, great, great job! Have been playing this now for a few years since this review still love it except for the letters that you are given especially when a new game is started, either they give you mostly vowels or no vowels without fail. Takes the fun out of the game, so please fix this! Sadly the issue I will be deleting this game after quite a few years, what a shame! and the problem has not been fixed turn after turn had to swap letters could not score any points, what fun is that? will be deleting this! by mozzie1107 on 2017/10/03 13:41 Love this game. I have played for over a year now and look forward to playing every day. You can play as much or as little as you want. You can play with friends or a "chumbot" on the difficulty level of your choosing... or you can let the game choose your player, which is usually very close to your friends. As you work through the levels, you can play for the fun of it or challenge yourself by working through the quests set forth within the game. Group play is a plus and lots of fun if you want to play with a group of friends. In-game purchases are available for boosts and extra coins as well as items to make your character your own. These items are collectively stored for you to use again and can be upgraded to help you move through the levels faster. Overall, a top-notch game! If you love word games, this one is a winner! by Dorothy McAvoy on 2018/12/20 03:54 THIS EXCEPTIONALLY FUN, INTERESTING AND COMPLETELY ADDICTIVE GAME IS REALLY A 10 STAR GAME!!!! Of all the computer games WORD CHUMS is the most fun and by far the most but WORD CHUMS is by far not only superior to them but also THE BEST GAME ON THE COMPUTER. When you get set up, you MUST take a few minutes to read the rules because if you just start playing, thinking it is just scrabble, you are missing out how to really play the game and you are loosing out on points that you could really be getting. Give his game a chance and you will immediately LOVE IT. I guarantee it!! by Better Shopper on 2020/08/02 13:44 Word Chums is more fun than WWF because it gives you more playing options - up to four people can play against each other in one game or they can form teams of two and play a team game. The avatars are fun and as you earn coins, you can "buy" various accessories for your avatar to wear. That probably sounds a bit goofy but it's really fun. Any my favorite feature is the star ratings for words that you played it but also only lights up two stars (for example), you know that there is a much better word to play somewhere on that board. And it will tell you when you've found the best possible word. All in all, it's a much more engaging and fun experience than WWF. by #3nannie on 2020/09/04 02:26 Love this game. Just wish the developers would take some of the players suggestions seriously, like let the 2nd and 3rd place winners wear the red and yellow ribbons. Update: developers are still not listing to players about giving second and third place winners a red or yellow ribbon. Some players are discouraged because they never get a ribbon or recognition for 2nd and 3rd place. Would love to see some better monthly shopping choices. Would love to see them be more creative. Also when swapping or using a bomb even though it shows good tiles available you end up with 5 ones and can't play anything. You wasted your bomb. I still gave the 5 stars because I love the game but am afraid I will lose a lot of friends playing the game but am afraid I will lose a lot of friends playing the game because I love the game but am afraid I will lose a lot of friends playing the game because I love the game because I love the game but am afraid I will lose a lot of friends playing the game because I love the game but am afraid I will lose a lot of friends playing the game but am afraid I wil playing Word Chums for quite a while. I actually even spend the money and bought the pro version to get rid of the ads. I enjoy it so much! I like how the letters turn green when it is a word. You can play with Random people or friends you know. I have some random people I have been playing now for over a year and have chatted a little with them. Usually just find out what state they're from and wish them merry Christmas, stuff like that. The game is a lot of fun and I have my sister playing me on a regular basis. That's really nice because I don't get to see her very often. It is a way we can keep in touch and do something together. It doesn't take that long to play and it makes you think. Good quick diversion from life's stress. It's a great game! by Bell Isimo on 2019/05/16 05:29 My brother got me started with Word Chums several months ago and there isn't a day gone by where I haven't picked it up. I have played other word but ended up purging them from my iPad. They just can't compare to the well-thought-outfullness of this one. When coins go on sale here, they are very reasonable, unlike other games and last a while. Hints are presented way better also. The only other feature I would like to see is, that instead of wholesale bombing of unwanted letters, please give us the option of retaining those we want. Otherwise, this game is very user-friendly and close to perfection. Buy when you click on a word. Love the coins you collect to purchase items. I am so hooked I play it every single day. Love that I can play it with my Son once in a while and my Grandson. I got them all into this game it is really an awesome game thank you developers for making this game the # 1 in my opinion. It is so much fun and challenging and I love games that I can challenge. I recommend this to all who love word games with the game randomly closing. Frequently when I am in the game moving tiles around to try to find words, the game freezes then instantly closes. When that happens it goes back to the home screen. I also lose the history of "best word" options I have found that you are supposed to see when you click on the him button. Sometimes it happens several times in the course of one turn. This is so frustrating. I have reported it to Word Chums two or three times now and received generic replies. Nothing has been fixed. My playing partner is experiencing the same problem and I have read reports of this happening to other players. I have deleted and reinstalled the app, rebooted my iPad, etc. to no avail. Please fix this glitch! by wscwsc on 2018/04/01 20:26 This game has features that make it fun, such as lighting up when a word is made, which requires no extra taps or submitting to know if attempts are actually words. I play mainly family members, a friend, and a former student of mine, and all are brilliant word aficionados. We make an agreement not to cheat or use hints, but we may earn coins toward bombs. It's great way to keep in touch with family who live in other countries and right down the road. Chat feature is handy. The goofy costumes can be ignored or used as score boosters or just for fun as one's mood dictates. The more you play high scorers, the better your strategy becomes. Great game! by Oahanatutu on 2020/05/28 01:31 I love this game and have been playing for over a year! It has so many added options which other popular word games at once! Our CHUMBOTS can be dressed an various outfits. It NEVER has crashed or froze in all the time I've played. Definitely worth trying! Once you try it you'll never go back to other word games! My sister was dying from cancer. Near the end she told Me the only thing that made her happy and distracted from her pain was Word Chums. by amygdalaiii on 2020/02/04 11:05 I do wish I could gift coins and an actual chum to a friend and not just hats, holds problem. It used to be simpler, less of a commitment and yielded more coins! I love this game and getting new chums, hats and holds almost every month and I'm a bomb/hint addict!

by beartap24 on 2021/05/24 14:28 There has been a problem for a few years now that the leader board does not update over the weekend. We have two iPads and two iPhones, and this occurs EVERY week. We have to delete the game, re-install, log in all over again, redo our settings, check on an email verification, and IF we are lucky it works. My wife has been getting "Communication error" which requires deleting all over again. Today, 24 May, 2021, I now have the same problem with repeated communication you complete the game within a certain time frame? It is a fun bonus to be able to change the Chums outfit whenever I want. This is hands down my favorite word game! by MeMe:-) on 2018/10/19 04:38 I love this game! I can't get enough of it. Once you start playing your hooked. It similar to "Words with Friends" .....only a LOT better. You just have money. So don't take my word for it.....give it a try yourself and you'll see. by Twinsarefun on 2021/01/16 05:49 Chums is a Great game! It is so entertaining with the characters, clothing, and bright colors. It is also very good for your mind. You have to use the letters you are given each turn to make words that fit onto the board. In addition to making words it is a challenge to find the best placement on the board to make the most points. I am always trying to take advantage of the W2, W3, L2, L3, and L4 spaces to make more points. It's a great way to stay in touch with friends because there is also a "chat" feature that you can send messages to the person you are playing. by JJDQ on 2019/01/12 increased my vocabulary as you can look up the meaning of any words you do not know. The support for the game and they love it. by joehick11 on 2019/10/02 02:13 Word Chums is 1000 times better than Words With Friends. The ads on WWF are annoying and endless. They have a ton of features that are useless and are always slowing down play. They have pop-ups that just open, and interfere with your own personal Chum Bot, and no ridiculous extras that distract from having fun. I'm trying to get my friends to switch over to the Chum side, you will be happy that you did. Forget WWF, and upgrade to a better playing experience on Word Chums. by Shrk2 on 2018/03/03 21:10 Stimulating! Learning all the time and having so much fun doing it. Growing we each game and each player. Meeting great people from all over the USA and other countries, have become friends w many. Love those Chums and they keep me my toes. Always a game waiting to be played; a new strategy learned; a new strategy learned; a new word and meaning. A fantastic way to keep me my toes. Always a game waiting to be played; a new strategy learned; a Chums". Also having fun bettering myself we ach game and word total. by Juhlshk on 2018/11/17 19:30 I have enjoyed this game for 3 years, but the latest update includes many changes that have not enhanced the play, but instead have created distractions. Most notably a new banner that flashes across the middle of the game telling you whose turn removed or can be turned off. This game used to be relaxing; now it's annoying...so why play it? Please fix it, Word Chums. by Hintsforus on 2018/02/11 00:13 I have to admit, I loved words with friends until I found this. My mother liked this better and so do I. I love the little outfits. I started off being a cat then just recently switched to a penguin. I kinda wish once you bought a chum you would be able to switch in between like you can with the themes and the outfits. But if you switch chums you have to purchase them again at 500 coins. Bummer! Didn't realize that until I went to see my cat, Poof gone! Great game! Keep the updates coming by TonTonRox on 2019/06/17 06:40 My girlfriend and I absolutely love this game. We'd been searching for an alternative to Words With Friends because of the endless ads and having to pay $9.99 a month. We are super competitive and mostly only play with each other, but every now and than I'll play with the computer to keep my mind sharp. I love the option to be able to play the computer at different levels. Although there aren't many cons to Word Chums, I rated it 4 stars because I do wish it would tell you when you have no more words left to play it. Other than that, Word Chums is ace! We love the characters and the ability to dress them up and earn higher percentages of XP. So far, this is our go to word game and I don't think we'll be playing any other word game and I don't think we'll be playing with random opponents. Great game for scrabble fans. I paid for ad free Free version was good too, but I like the unlimited bot chums with paid version. Best game since, and maybe including, the now extinct bookworm heroes. Love that it provides word definitions. Highly recommend they treat as invalid words that have no found definition, but they find word Only downside is that even with paid version they try to get you to buy other games. Ads do not interfere or show during game by Ms HVAC on 2021/02/15 04:37 Fun game. Love the little chums. I was playing another word game until a friend invited me to play Chums. Hesitant at first I now have 15 active games with various "chums". The ability to know whether or not a word is playable before playing is one of the many features that Chums uses to keep me motivated to find better words. And let's not forget about the ability to personalize your Chum with a variety of accessories from hats, bouquets of flowers, to motorcycles & helmets. I'm now holding a snow shovel and wearing a warm hat in anticipation of a major snow storm. by paparere on 2021/03/03 04:45 Bring back the "extra points" advertising. Don't like the surveys because they don't always give you the points. The game itself is great fun. I do a lot of surveys. Lately they give no points if you don't finish the survey. A lot of the time the survey freezes and you can go no further. They used to give partial reward for time spent. Now I can spend twenty minutes, the survey looks up and I get NO points. I won't do any more surveys. Waste of time .CAN I GET A RESPONSE PLEASE????? by Bondij on 2017/09/12 12:22 LOVE THIS GAME....I think you will too! Anyone can play-the try it! After you have realized how fun it is, PLEASE pay for the PRO "no ads" version to help developers—it's daily entertainment! by DSchuette2018 on 2018/06/27 19:04 Word Chums is great. It's like WWF on steroids. Some of it's best features: it tells you when you've created a useable word. You can bomb all of your tiles without losing a turn. You can get a hint for "good" word placement (but not necessarily the best). And it tells you when you made the best word possible. While it sounds like it's much easier- remember your opponents all have the same advantages and the letter draws are still random. This game is a blast, looks great, and will help build vocabulary. Just excellent. by LeRoy Lebowski on 2018/08/17 20:02 The game itself is a ten. I have the pro version, but for some reason I am still CONSTANTLY bombarded with "special limited time offers" that haven't even let you close it without waiting a few seconds for the no thanks option become usable. It's a shady and annoying tactic. Every time I start the app or leave a game it's there. Every time I start the app or leave a game a long time, and still love it, but something has changed in the last few months. They have definitely made it harder to make longer words, and therefore earn coins to buy hints, etc.. I don't know if they added more letters, but when I play I either get practically all vowels, or all consonants, not a good mix of both, so I have to assume my opponent is getting the opposite of what I get. Games are definitely taking longer. I believe they are trying to get you to spend your own money on things, which I refuse to do. That is why I can only give it 3 stars. by mtneerg on 2018/02/10 16:07 Although there are many word games out there, of which I have tried quite a few, Word Chums is by far the best. The options and the format allow you to start and proceed at your own desired pace. It is fully flexible, and includes pleasing whimsical touches. In the course of playing you have fun, are challenged, learn quickly, and feel part of a community. Most importantly, there is always an inviting game at my fingertips that makes me feel virtuous while relaxing...thank goodness! by Tex-gal on 2018/07/28 21:12 This is my very favorite word game! It's endless, unlike Word Mocha, which I also liked...enough to purchase it in order to eliminate the annoying ads, but suddenly, it came to an end 😌 it only has so many levels and then it runs out of words. WOW!!!!!! I love playing Word Chums against the computer! It's a lot of fun and really builds your word skills!!! I bought the Pro version. I highly recommend it. I think it was $5.00, but that was a couple of years ago, and well worth it!!! by Cheese muffins on 2018/02/19 09:23 Love the ability to see if word is legal to play before hitting play! Very fun!! The longer I have played the more I prefer word chums to wwf. Now I even have my husband playing and he agrees this is more fun!! It would be nice to get coins easier, I don't mind paying for stuff sometimes just not to frequently. Not sure what the person means saying this paid version has ads. I have never seen an ad and I have been playing since 2014! Still fun!! Love the new quick game too. by TinaLeeD on I've put on the board then I'll keep on trying till I find it or finally have to give up. It's just very helpful to know whether or not there's a better word out there. by Oecaker on 2019/09/10 13:15 I so enjoy playing this game with friends --- and the little Word Chumbs! They are competitive and I've learned a lot from playing against them! This game beats words with friends --- you can dress your Chumbs -- with credits you win from playing friends. It's addicting! We went more choices in outfits to choose from! If you've played long enough there's nothing left to purchase! Which is half the fun! We like to shop with the coins we earn!! Get creative! by TheRealSketchbook on 2019/04/07 00:21 I love this game. I have the pro version - well worth the cost. I enjoy having made new friends through this game. More coins please!! by Linda6101 on 2019/01/15 08:35 The game is very cute. You can pick and change characters and how on the board. I like the points showing. But I think there a couple other icons that don't need to be on the board, by CatsnCoffee on 2018/08/05 19:24 I would give this game 10 stars if I could :-) It's a fantastic word game puts Scrabble to shame so much easier to not have to deal with the dictionary having it built into the app. If you love word game puts Scrabble to shame so much easier to not have to deal with the dictionary having it built into the app. If you love word games puts Scrabble to shame so much easier to not have to deal with the dictionary having it built into the app. If you love word games puts Scrabble to shame so much easier to not have to deal with the dictionary having it built into the app. If you love word games puts Scrabble to shame so much easier to not have to deal with the dictionary having it built into the app. If you love word games puts Scrabble to shame so much easier to not have to deal with the dictionary having it built into the app. If you love word games puts Scrabble to shame so much easier to not have to deal with the dictionary having it built into the app. If you love word games puts Scrabble to shame so much easier to not have to deal with the dictionary having it built into the app. If you love word games puts Scrabble to shame a supplied you should get this one! Then I could even have more fun. That would make the game 5+. Also, I must say that my favorite feature is that when you have successfully made a correct word! I've been playing since 2014... I should be tired of this game but I'm not. ... HOW ABOUT SOME NEW ACCESSORIES FOR THE VETERAN PLAYERS? Special prices would help too! by "The Hair~" on 2021/03/09 20:10 Absolutely Love this cute little game!! Wish there were other ways to get more coins to get my gear or costumes or have enough to give to others, but still LOVE playing and laughing along with the cute little characters!! Possibly even be able to make longer words and have more letters to choose from! How about being able to use names! Love laughing with and keeping in touch with people through this cute little game! by Sisfairplayr on 2020/11/05 03:22 I agree with the review about this being the Best Word game. I no longer play Words w/ Friends. This game is so much more fun. I disagree with other reviewer about letters provided to start game are mostly all vowels or consonants. I have been playing Word Chums for years and have very few glitches, if any, that I can think of right now. Keep up the great work, guys !... A Chum Lover ... by bellacop on 2018/08/02 10:49 I have been playing Word Chums for a few YEARS now and I'm not tired of it at all! It's fun and I enjoy the fact you know your points up front. I like being able to cash in my coins for hints. I like how I can change my emoji depending on the season or holiday! Speaking of holidays I like the Santa and sleigh during winter months. I also like it when I hear the little squeal when someone has played their turn. This by far is one of the best word games to play! by Nicolebybee on 2020/02/25 22:04 I have been playing this game for quite a few years now. I really love the game. However I was putting it on a new phone the other day and kept getting a connection error. They were really good to respond initially but when the things they told me to do didn't work, crickets. They totally just stopped responding. So I recommend the game... as long As you don't have any errors with it. Otherwise you end up having to let games just hang and make people think you just quit playing. For the record, I would never do that. by Sweetp-7 on 2018/08/04 01:44 Played the others but none have the benefits of bombs, hints and points showing immediately if its an accepted word! Love it! And so do my friends! Great game but sometimes it won't accept some foreign words and not others? And even though I have downloaded many games, it will only give me one video a day to watch and earn 20 points! by Cranberry Patch on 2019/12/05 22:23 Love having this game option always handy when I need a break - or challenge! It's the greatest. One option I would add is an agreement to "play it straight" or agree to use an unscrambler aid. It's not much fun playing someone who is using a "cheat" unless you both agree to it. The playing field is not even if your opponent is using a Word Chums is the best! But I want you to get a new dictionary or add a more modern one. The current one has so many old, even ancient, words that even define a word by using the word in the supposed definition. And one more thing, the computer keeps telling me I have the award for the third highest score when there are only two of us playing. How can that be true? Still lots of fun! WC continues to be my favorite game. You choose your chum (play piece) then dress him/her up in fun items. When playing a word you know whether it is acceptable right away- - a "good" word is highlighted in a neon green, along with how many points it is worth so you have time to keep/play it or make a different word. If you are a word junkie, like me, give it a try I think you'll like it! by Redramjim on 2018/05/21 03:18 Word Chums keeps improving. One thing I would like to see is that when you are given a hint and you select a word that may meet or even exceed the hint you may not have necessarily selected the best word, I would like to see Word Chums provide that information. There have been times when I have spent hours laboring over possibilities of getting the best word, and gave up and have wound up just merely settling for beating the hint, still wondering what the best word could have been. by Sunshinejad on 2019/12/30 03:41 I may not get to play this game everyday, and some days I may play a few times...but every time I come back and jump in, it is nice to find that my players/ friends are still in and connected. It is fun to earn rewards and use them to dress my Chum. Just wish the backgrounds/seasons were more affordable! Having a Chum dressed in summer gear standing in the middle of winter, just does not seem right. Hopefully some day that will happen!
