But, Nehemiah problem we are in. The second way is through internal factors, and that is to beg to ``, "You see the problem in which we are: Jerusalem is in ruins and its gates were burned with fire. 8 And I may have a letter to Asaph, the guardian of the king's forest, so he shall give me wood to make beams to the gates of the citadel by the temple and the wall of the city, and to the residence that I will occupy? (1: 8-9) He prayed for 4 months and constantly 2) Put the spirit in the Lord (4:14). I command you to help each other; we cannot do these things alone. Each had his gun, even when he went to the water. When they went to the wall to take water to the bath, they failed to lower the guard. This is a creation that God has made possible to create; He needed rest later!! It was a beautiful place in the eyes of God. But after you experience this disappointment, you will have a chance to do things you can never dream about. "Are you rebelling against the king? - € (Nehemiah 2:19). One of the qualified leaders must have is to deal with criticism. This is a very important thing for leadership. If you're not All, you can't do anything. Remember the Lord, who is great and incredible, and fight for your brothers, your wives and your homes. This is the most basic thing a leader should do. So Nehemiah brought them back together under one common goal. Â He had to stop the project and let them take a breather. A Then he put their focus back on the Lord. Were three times when you wanted to get away from it all? Explain what Nehemiah brought them back together under one common goal. A He had to stop the project and let them take a breather. The first disappointment came from the people of Judah. Motivating Others (2:17-18) There are two ways. Nehemiah¢ÂÂs focus was that ¢ÂÂslook, we need help. It is a basic condition for a leader to aware of what is being demanded. How did you handle opposition and criticism that came your way as you started working on your plan? Then, Adam you wanted to give it all up? ¢ÃÂÂMeanwhile, the people in Judah said, ¢ÃÂÂThe strength of the laborers is giving out, and there is so much rubble that we cannot rebuild the wall.¢Ã Â we can see here that the culprit who disappointed Nehemiah was no one else but the people of \tilde{A} \tilde{A} were living away from their family to work. We in ruins. do you not see that we need to rebuild these walls?" then the people said: "Let's start rebuilding." (2:18) Why did the city's citizens commit to the neemia project? is because he was able to invoke what the people had inside. especially, internal motivating people should be considered deeply in Africa. dealing with opposition and criticism (2:19, 4:3-9) should we also remember that neemias immediately faced opposition to our god will fight for us!" where was the point of concentration? it was a place and that's where you hear the sound of the trumpet. neemias said to join wherever the sound is heard. this principle is that not to try to fight the battle for. never say: "I don't need anyone." This is a wrong attitude and does not reflect the spirit of Christianity. if you are a child of God, then you should say: 'I can't do this alone. you mean 'No, no, it would never happen to me in my life. I hope so. people are tired, but there is a lot to do. people lost the hope of completing the walls. We can lose hope because of the rubble we have to spend after working so hard for so long. then neemias brought these people together by family. Come, we rebuild the wall of jerusalem, and we will no longer be in disgrace." In this scripture, we now have to focus on two words here. but I can't agree with those who say we should never fight. I support the \hat{A} \hat{A} us. We will serve to serve. Influence, it becomes stronger and bigger. Soon, we lost our orientation, became weak, ran and hid. By continuing to do this, we become someone who is useless and a complete failure. We have easily lost the battle against those who disappoint and make us ineffective. A man. We must rise from disappointment, and leaders must return to those who were disappointed. What do you do first, pray or plan? But they lose their conviction, they lose Range. There may be many causes for this, but the feeling of emptiness is always one of them. That's something so powerful that we can't get through easily. (3) Loss of `` The greatest cause of disappointment comes from the loss of your conviction. The workers were tired and were emotionally exhausted. The walls are halfway, but there are still so many rubble. They let go of a sigh, "We can't rebuild the wall." When you lose your strength and hope, the next thing to lose is when you lose it, sense of disappointment, despair attacks us from all angles. The Bible says they wanted to do this good job. The families; He brought the people together for their families. God knew why, so put Adam to sleep. How do you think about it? It seemsBut the disappointment caused by the loss of what we see is to lead us to an incredible achievement. See Abraham. When you lost hope and despair, did your family help you? If you don't have ``, Geshem) were always around until the walls were completed. When it was halfway, they cursed and said, in chapter 4, verse 3 "Tobia amonita said: "What are they building if it is even A fox climbed in it, he would break the wall of stones! € (4:3) What did Nehemiah do in this opposition and criticism? There are three important things in your response to criticism. Volunteering (4: 21-23). You know that change makes it what you like to get a chance. There will always be some direct or indirect criticism about the plan. mocked and ridiculed us. The best thing you can do with disappointment is for, take a deep breath - and take some time off. There is an ancient Greek saying: "If you continue to bend the bow will break. . You should be able to take some breaks from time to time. When the family fights, their world fights and their church fights, their world fights, their world fights and their church fights. Abecoming stable, but my utmost Famalia, church is strictly becoming utmost. In versa
